Voting Outreach at Polocrosse Match in Lusaka

July 16, 2012

The U.S. National Polocrosse team will play the Zambian National team at 15:00 Friday, July 20, 2012 at the Leopard's Hill Polocrosse Club. U.S. Embassy Consul Rob Romanowski will be at the club offering absentee voting materials. Join us in cheering for the U.S. team while taking the opportunity to complete your voter registration cards for the upcoming U.S. elections in November. Admission to the Polocrosse Club event is free.

Polocrosse is a combination of polo and lacrosse. Last year, the U.S. National team placed 4th at the Polocrosse World Cup.

The July 20th event will begin with a parade and national anthems at 14:30 and the first match at 15:00. The Leopards Hill Polocrosse Club is located on Chifwema Road, just past Lazy J stables off of Leopards Hill Rd.

If you are unable to attend but are interested in learning more about the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP), please visit the following website: FVAP.gov.
